About Orléans-Cumberland Community Resource Centre

Do you love collaborating as part of a close-knit, high performing team to directly impact and strengthen Orléans-Cumberland communities? Do you want to feel a sense of belonging where your voice will be heard? The OCCRC is more than an organization – we are an active eco-system with a concrete impact in the community we serve!

We are a bilingual non-profit organization committed to strengthening Orléans-Cumberland communities by providing a wide variety of free programs and services supporting individuals to achieve their full potential. We are friendly, welcoming, inclusive, empathetic and non-judgmental. We provide sector competitive compensation and benefits, coaching and support to realize your full potential, and the space to live your life outside of work.

About you

You naturally empower and inspire others to reach their full potential and are a passionate advocate for individual and community well-being. You are someone who strives for continuous improvement in all that you do, and you actively look for opportunities to strengthen your skills, invest in your own growth and development, and embrace change.

You foster an environment that is inclusive and open-minded, nurturing genuine connections, celebrating differences and embracing diversity. You listen deeply, communicate openly and transparently and welcome feedback.
